Civil Wedding Ceremony Requirements

The Municipality of Lakeshore offers civil marriage ceremonies at the Lakeshore Municipal Office located at 419 Notre Dame St., Belle River, ON N0R 1A0.

The civil service lasts approximately 20 minutes. When booking the civil ceremony, you should allow for approximately 1 hour to allow for photo opportunities. Ceremonies are available in English, and French. If an interpreter is required, more time for the ceremony may be needed. Couples are responsible to provide the language interpreter.

Please note same day service for civil ceremonies is not available.

Ceremonies must be booked in person at the municipal office between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. All ceremonies must be paid in full (cash or debit only) at the time of booking.

Ceremony Fees:

The 2019 fee is $266.00 + 13% H.S.T. = $300.58

Please note that fees are subject to change annually

Cancellation fees may apply.

Cancellations Fees:

Cancellation Fees to be determined at the time of cancellation.

Requirements:

- Couples must purchase a valid Ontario Marriage Licence. A marriage licence may be purchased at the Lakeshore Municipal Office or at most municipal offices in Ontario. Refer to Marriage Licence Requirements on our website for more information. If the marriage licence is purchased in another municipality, it must be provided to staff no later than 1 week prior to the ceremony.
- The Municipality of Lakeshore does not provide witnesses for the ceremony. Couples must provide the two witnesses required according to section 25 of the Marriage Act. There is no set minimum age for a person to be a witness to a civil ceremony; however, the officiate must be satisfied that the person understands what he/she is signing.

Officiates and the Ceremony:

The Town Clerk or designate, will act as officiates to solemnize the ceremony. The civil marriage service will be a non-denominational and solemn ceremony, which adheres to the requirements of the Marriage Act.

Ceremonies may be held in the Council Chambers (which can accommodate up to 50 guests) or another location within the town hall. Photographers and/or videographers are allowed during the ceremony.

Marriage Ineligibility:

Staff will not solemnize the marriage of any person who he or she knows or has reasonable grounds to believe lacks capacity to marry. Circumstances rendering a person ineligible for the civil marriage include:

- One or both parties are under physical or mental duress
- One or both parties fail to meet the age requirements (both parties must be at least 18 years old to get married in Ontario. Parties who are 16 or 17 years old may marry only if they have the consent in writing of both parents)
- The parties are related as grandparent, parent, child, grandchild, brother or sister
- One or both parties are currently married
- One or both parties are mentally ill or under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs and incapable of understanding the nature of the marriage contract and the duties, obligations and responsibilities that result from marriage. If the person solemnizing a marriage has any doubts as to the mental capacity of the parties, or one of the parties, he/she may refuse to perform the ceremony.

Gender:

The Town of Lakeshore offers civil marriage services to all eligible couples, following the June 10, 2003, Ontario Court of Appeal decision, making same-sex marriages legal in Ontario.

Marriage Certificates:

To find out how to register your marriage or obtain a marriage certificate, visit Service Ontario Services or call 1-800-461-2156.

CIVIL MARRIAGE CEREMONY
(Groom's Name) & (Bride's Name)

Vow # 1 with exchange of ring(s)

You have come here today to affirm your love, pledge your faith to one another, and to enter into the joys and privileges of marriage.

It is not a decision to be entered into lightly, but rather with careful consideration, and with the greatest respect for one another.

Marriage symbolizes the intimate sharing of two lives, and (Groom's Name) & (Bride's Name) your marriage offers you the hope and promise of a love that is true and fulfilling. But to attain such love, you will have to commit yourselves to each other freely and completely for the sake of a richer and deeper life together.

(Repeat after me (Groom's Name))

I, (Groom's Name), do not know, of any lawful reason, why I may not, be joined in marriage, with (Bride's Name).

(Repeat after me (Bride's Name))

I, (Bride's Name), do not know, of any lawful reason, why I may not, be joined in marriage, with (Groom's Name).

[BRIDE AND GROOM FACE ONE ANOTHER AND HOLD HANDS]

(Repeat after me (Groom's Name))

I, (Groom's Name), take you (Bride's Name), to be my lawful wedded wife.

(Repeat after me (Bride's Name))

I, (Bride's Name), take you (Groom's Name) to be my lawful wedded husband.

Rings

Place the ring on left hand – third finger.

(Repeat after me (Groom's Name))

I shall always love, honour and cherish you, and this ring shall be, the symbol of my love.

(Repeat after me (Bride's Name))

I shall always love, honour and cherish you, and this ring shall be, the symbol of my love.

By virtue of the powers vested in me by the Marriage Act, I hereby pronounce you husband and wife.

You may kiss the bride.

CIVIL MARRIAGE CEREMONY

Vows # 2

Family and friends, we welcome you today to witness the marriage of [Groom's Name] and [Bride's Name].

You have shared and contributed to their lives in the past, and by witnessing their marriage ceremony today, [Bride's Name and Groom's Name] ask you to share in their future. Marriage is a promise, made in the hearts of two people who love each other, which takes a lifetime to fulfill. Within the circle of its love, marriage encompasses all of life's most important relationships. A wife and a husband are each other's lover, teacher, listener, critic, and best friend.

It is into this state that [Bride's Name and Groom's Name] wish to enter.

If anyone present can show just cause as to why this couple may not be legally joined together, you should now declare it, or hereafter hold your peace. (silence)

[Bride's Name and Groom's Name], if either of you know of any legal why you may not be joined in marriage, you should now declare it.

[Bride's Name and Groom's Name], please face each other and hold hands, please repeat after me:

I, (Groom's Name) take you (Bride's Name), to be my wife, to have and to hold, from this day forth, to love, honour, and cherish, to comfort and respect, in sorrow or in joy, in good times or in hardship, so long as we both shall live.

(Repeat after me (Bride's Name))

I, (Bride's Name), take you (Groom's Name) to be my husband, to have and to hold, from this day forth, to love, honour, and cherish, to comfort and respect, in sorrow or in joy, in good times or in hardship, so long as we both shall live.

(Repeat after me (Groom's Name))

I shall always love, honour and cherish you, and this ring shall be, the symbol of my love.

(Repeat after me (Bride's Name))

I shall always love, honour and cherish you, and this ring shall be, the symbol of my love.

[Bride's Name and Groom's Name], may your home be a haven of peace and your relationship be one of truth and understanding. May you enjoy length of days, fulfillment of hopes, and peace and content of mind as you, day by day, live and fulfill the terms of this covenant you have made with one another.

By virtue of the powers vested in me by the Marriage Act, I hereby pronounce you husband and wife.

CIVIL MARRIAGE CEREMONY

Vows # 4

(FATHER WALKS BRIDE UP THE AISLE)

Who gives (Bride's name) in marriage?

Father: "I do"

Family & friends, (Bride's name) and (Groom's name) have invited you today to be part of this very special event. You have shared in their lives in the past, and today you are here to share in the beginning of their future together in marriage.

Marriage is a solemn promise between two people who love one another. It is not a decision to be entered into lightly, but rather with careful consideration and with the greatest respect for one another.

Marriage is a promise between a husband and wife that they will cherish each other, support, comfort and strengthen each other through all of life's joys and sorrow.

(Bride's name) and (Groom's name) have chosen to commit themselves to each other in marriage so if there is anyone present who can show any reason why this couple cannot be legally joined together, speak now or forever hold your peace.

(ASK MRS. Mom of Bride & MRS. Mom of Groom TO COME FORWARD)

We have two bottles of sand before us. These two bottles symbolize two distinct lives; two separate families.

As these two containers of sand are poured into the third container, it will symbolize the blending of two families, and (Bride's name) and (Groom's name) lives being joined together as one.

And just as these grains of sand can never be separated and poured back into their individual containers, so will this marriage be.

(COUPLE HOLD HANDS AND FACE ONE ANOTHER)

(Groom's name), do you take (Bride's name) to be your wife; to respect and cherish her, to love her and to stay true to her as long as you both shall live?
(Groom: I do)

(Bride's name), do you take (Groom's name) to be your husband; to respect and cherish him, to love him and to stay true to him as long as you both shall live?
(Bride: I do)

(RINGS)

The ring is a symbol of unity; that your two lives are now joined in an unbroken circle; a symbol that whenever you part, you will return to one another.

(Repeat after me (Groom's Name))

I shall always love honour and cherish you and this ring shall be the symbol of my love.

(Repeat after me (Bride's Name))

I shall always love honour and cherish you and this ring shall be the symbol of my love.

(Bride's name) and (Groom's name), may your home be filled with hope and peace and may you share a long, loving life together.

By the powers vested in me by the Province of Ontario, I now pronounce you husband and wife.

You may kiss the bride.

CIVIL MARRIAGE CEREMONY

Vows #6

Ceremony Music to begin | Entrance of Wedding Party | Entrance of Bride & Father

Bride's name) and (Groom's name) have brought us together today for an occasion of great joy and great celebration.

Having met each other, they have built a relationship that will serve them well as the foundation for their marriage.

Marriage is not created by a law or a ceremony; rather it occurs in the hearts of two human beings. It grows out of loving, caring and sharing ourselves with another. And so it is that Bride's name) and (Groom's name) have connected their hearts and souls one to the other, drawing upon the depths of their being, into the deep well of human need, the need to live united, loving and complete.

So in witnessing this ceremony today, we are observing this outward sign of their inward union that already exists between Bride's name) and (Groom's name) Today they have come before us to publicly to affirm their love, to promise to treasure each other and this marriage; and to acknowledge its importance in their lives. They do so knowing that marriage is the most compassionate, yet challenging of all relationships in life.

And so we have gathered here together as family and friends, and with (Grooms Name) parents and (Brides Name) in our hearts to witness the coming together of (Bride's name) and (Groom's name) as they enter into the sacred and joyous covenant of marriage.

Friends & Family you have shared in (Bride's name) and (Groom's name) lives in the past and today you are here to share in their future and to celebrate the love they have found in each other. By being here, each of us is declaring our support for their decision to join together in marriage and to ensure they honour and love each other from today on. As families and friends, we form the community of support that surrounds (Bride's name) and (Groom's name) and to do this, always stand beside them, never between them, offer them your love and support, not your judgment and encourage them with your kindness and loving hearts.

(Bride's name) and (Groom's name) have chosen to commit themselves to each other in marriage so if there is anyone present who can show any reason why this couple cannot be legally joined together, speak now or forever hold your peace.

Do you (Bride's name) and (Groom's name) know of any lawful reason why you may not be joined in matrimony to one another.

(Bride's name) and (Groom's name) , please face each other and hold hands.

GROOM VOWS:

I, (Groom's Name), do take you (Brides Name) to be my lawful wedded wife.

BRIDE VOWS:

I, (Brides Name), do take you, (Grooms Name), to be my lawful wedded husband

Exchange of Rings:

I shall always love, honour and cherish you, and this ring shall be, the symbol of my love.

(Bride's name) and (Groom's name) you have pledged to each other to be loving friends and partners in marriage. To talk and to listen, to trust and to appreciate on another, to respect and to cherish each other's uniqueness and to support comfort and strengthen each other through all of life's joys and sorrows. You have promised to share hopes, thoughts, and dreams as you build your lives together. May your lives be ever intertwined, your love always keeping you together. May you raise a family that is compassionate to all, full of respect and honour for others and each other. May your lives be forever filled with peace, happiness and love. By virtue of the powers vested in me by the Marriage Act, I hereby pronounce you, (Bride's name) and (Groom's name) to be married as husband and wife.

You may kiss the bride.
